Clubs and Activities

This week at school was packed with exciting events, and everyone was buzzing with energy. It was one of those weeks where you could feel the school spirit in the air, from the hallway decorations to the packed stands at the athletic events.

This week, the clubs and extracurricular activities at school were in full swing, offering students a chance to showcase their talents, develop new skills, and bond with their peers outside the classroom. From academic clubs to arts and athletics, there was something for everyone.

Here's a breakdown of what happened across various clubs and activities this week:
